COMPANIES MUST

FILE REPORT

The end of the month is drawing near and the secretaries of mining companies organized under the laws of Nevada should not overlook the making of semi-annual reports, under the provisions of what has been generally termed the "wildcat law," passed by the last legislature. These reports must be made in June and November of each year and must be filed with the attorney general, the recorder of the county in which the property is located and a copy sent to each stockholder of record. So far only a few companies have complied with the law by filing their reports.

TONNAGE JUSTIFIES REBUILDING RAILROAD

The Sentinel is still unable to give any news regarding the reconstruction of the E. & P. railway from Palsade to Eureka.

While it is known here that C. E. Allen and J. Fewson Smith, head officials of the mining department of the United States Mining and Smelting company, have been making a thorough inspection of the Buckhorn Mining company's properties at Buckhorn for the past week, it is not learned whether it was being done with a view of ascertaining the probable tonnage from those mines, or with the object of purchasing the properties. There are all kinds of rumors afloat—one to the effect that Geo. Wingfield has given the United States people an option on the property for about $3,000,000. Another is that parties have recently been negotiating for options on several Pine valley ranches that carry water rights of ample volume sufficient for all smelting purposes.

Whether the recent inspection made at Buckhorn has to do with the tonnage or the purchase of the property, either proposition augurs well for the early construction of the railroad.

While the uncertainty of the time when the road will be rebuilt is causing great anxiety among the people here and hurting all kinds of business, hardly anyone doubts that it will be rebuilt. The known tonnage from this district and the immense bodies of ore already developed and blocked out at Buckhorn insure beyond question the necessary tonnage for the investment of the required capital for the rebuilding of the E. & P. railway from Palsade to Eureka Sentinel.

NOT TOO HOT IN DEATH VALLEY

Homer Wilson came in the first of the week with another shipment of bullion from the Keane Wonder, the clean-up for May is a little short, the deficiency being in the cyanide end and the usual monthly output of $20,000 or thereabouts was met in May.

Mr. Wilson reports extremely hot weather in Death Valley this season. The milling plant is situated in the edge of the valley at an altitude of about 12,000 feet, but it gets plenty hot at the mill and a little hotter down in the valley proper, where the altitude is minus instead of plus.

There have been three very hot days and nights this season at the Keane Wonder, May 30, 31 and June 1. At midnight, it seemed impossible to get one's breath, reports Mr. Wilson, and the only comfort available was wrapping up in sheets wrung out of water. The breeze, which was not much in evidence, was like the breath of a furnace. If this condition prevailed at midnight, the readers of this paper may draw their own conclusions as to what the weather was at mid-day.

And in spite of this heat, Mr. Wilson and fifty men are there year in and year out, mining ore, sending it down an aerial tramway a mile to the mill and then extracting its metallic contents with stamps and cyanide.

And Mr. Wilson has kept this up for many months, this being his fourth summer in Death Valley. The mill has produced steadily, always at a profit, although not as large a profit as perhaps will be realized some day when certain improvements are installed.

Lawsuits have come and lawsuits have gone, but Mr. Wilson has stuck on like grim death, and it looks as if he will be rewarded liberally one of these days for his perseverance.

While the mill has been steadily grinding 60 to 80 tons of ore per day, development in the property

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; less cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency? I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. The party have selected their route via Los Angeles, Daggett, Goldfield, Tonopah, Ely, and thence on to Salt Lake. News of the tour was telegraphed to "Shorty" Kutzkau several days ago with the request that he provide a map of the route to Ely. It is understood that there is no men in the party but this cannot be confirmed.

GIRLS OF ST. MARK'S ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

The two classes of girls attending St. Mark's Sunday school were invited to Dr. C. H. Gove's residence on Thursday last. The teachers, Mrs. Woodward and Mrs. Veitch, assisted by Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. Peck, made the occasion one long to be remembered by the young misses, who accepted the kind invitation. The time passed pleasantly, and rousing claps of many hands bespoke the thanks and good will of the guests.

OUR STATE ANTHEM.

Nevada, 'tis of thee
Sweet state of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
State where our fathers fled,
State that sets mothers free—
Marriage, because of thee,
Hath lost its sting.
No state that holds the key
That sets the shackled free
I love thy name:
I love thy lawgiver's ways.
Thy dazzling divinity,
Thy brightness of thy days—
Thy little name,
Hence, it is to thee
Daughter of liberty,
To thee we flee.
Long may thy streets resound
With freedom's joyful sound—
Scatter thy light around
From sea to sea.
